ESRF Terms of use for data processing services

This Terms of Use document defines the rules and conditions that govern your access to and use (including transmission, processing, and storage of data) of the resources and services ("Services") as granted by the ESRF for the purpose of processing experimental data or preparing your ESRF experiments.

These services are intended for the ESRF community of users, unless otherwise agreed in advance.

1. The use of the services is subject to commitment to comply with the ESRF computing charter.
2. You shall only use the Services in a manner consistent with the purposes and limitations described above; you shall show consideration towards other users including by not causing harm to the Services; you have an obligation to collaborate in the resolution of issues arising from your use of the Services.
3. You shall only use the Services for lawful purposes and not breach, attempt to breach, nor circumvent administrative or security controls.
4. You shall respect intellectual property and confidentiality agreements.
5. You shall protect your access credentials (e.g. passwords, private keys or multi-factor tokens); no intentional sharing of credentials is permitted.
6. You shall keep your registered information correct and up to date.

7. You shall promptly report known or suspected security breaches, credential compromise, or misuse to the security contact stated below; and report any compromised credentials to the ESRF helpdesk.
8. Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the privacy statements referenced below.
9. Your use of the Services may be restricted or suspended, for administrative, operational, or security reasons, without prior notice and without compensation.
10. If you violate these rules, you may be liable for the consequences, which may include your account being suspended and a report being made to your home organisation or to law enforcement.

This Term of Use document may be updated to reflect changes in the Services.
